

Stephen Phillips
Chief Executive, China-Britain Business Council (CBBC)

Stephen Phillips joined the China- Britain Business Council as Chief Executive in June 2006. Stephen has been actively engaged in business in and with China since 1989 and his experience spans a number of sectors including aerospace, oil, gas and petrochemicals, infrastructure, ICT and financial services.

Stephen held senior investment banking positions with Deutsche and BZW/Barclays Capital in Asia for over 12 years, where he specialised in structuring and financing cross border investments totalling in excess of £20 billion. In China, Stephen worked with a wide range of multinational and Chinese enterprises on major projects, acquisitions and joint ventures. Prior to moving to Asia, Stephen worked for the Barclays Group in the UK and Botswana.

In 2000 Stephen became a co-founder and Managing Director of a group of companies providing IT solutions and financial and business consulting services throughout Asia and the Middle East, with a particular focus, partnerships and representation in Greater China.

Before joining CBBC, Stephen was International Trade Director, UK Trade & Investment where he was responsible for a team delivering services to companies based in the South West England to further their international ambitions.

He holds a BSc in Chemistry and Law from the University of Exeter.