China-Britain Business Council Delegation Programme 2026

With visa-free travel now available to British nationals and interest to visit China growing, CBBC is excited to launch a full year of delegation programmes covering a range of key regions and sectors. Our aim for each delegation is to create opportunities for British companies to meet major local companies, engage senior Government officials, learn about China's fast-evolving technologies, and generate new growth opportunities.

All delegations listed below are open to UK companies applying to attend. Unless stated otherwise, participants will not be charged to take part. However, travel costs will not be covered. Please reach out if you require more information or wish to discuss the programme or any of the individual delegations we have planned.
